

Very Vellum

July 2013 Card Class

Hi Everyone! White Vellum Paper is a great product to create interest on your cards and projects.

At our Very Vellum card class, we'll explore how embossed images allow you to add color and a transparency effect. We'll use them:

- Framed
- Die Cut
- Punched
- Layered

Key Materials Used:

White Vellum Paper
White Embossing Powder
VersaMark
Heat Tool
Blender Pen

Other Materials used for Card Samples (I do use retired product in some examples. I'll note substitutions wherever possible):

Stamp Sets:

Secret Garden
Happy Dot
Petite Pairs
Papillion Potpourri
Button Buddies (Retired) – more holiday stamps in the Holiday Catalog starting in August!

More Merry Messages (available! – See Holiday Carryover)
Simply Sketched – Hostess Stamp Set –
Substitutions: For the Birds, Papaya Collage, and or other “open” images that could be colored.
Itty Bitty Banners

Paper:

Cardstock..TIP! order assorted Color Collections for a wide variety of cardstock!

Whisper White
 Crisp Cantaloupe
 Costal Cabana
 Island Indigo
 Summer Starfruit
 Tangerine Tango
 Pistachio Pudding
 Very Vanilla
 Cherry Cobbler

Ink - Tip: Use lighter/darker ink to create even more blending with the Blender Pens:

Crisp Cantaloupe
 Costal Cabana
 Island Indigo
 Summer Starfruit
 Tangerine Tango

Tools: TIP! – you could substitute a large punch and punch in from side to create window areas.

Big Shot Die-cutting and Embossing Machine
